

GHCC will host a Mayoral Candidates' Forum

Atlanta - July 14th - The Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce will host an Atlanta Mayoral Candidates' Forum on Thursday July 30th at the Georgian Terrace Hotel from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

The event will be moderated by Ed Baker, publisher of Atlanta Business Chronicle. Five top mayoral candidates; Lisa Borders, Mary Norwood, Kasim Reed, Jesse Spikes and Glen Thomas, will focus on issues relevant to the Hispanic business community.

“The forum will be the first in a series of candidates' forums that will be provided as a service to our membership base,” said Tisha R. Tallman, President and CEO. “It is important for candidates and voters alike to have a chance to hear each other. We are excited to bring this opportunity to our membership.”

The Forum will be for GHCC members only.
