

UPS Executive to sit on SECAB

Atlanta - June 30th - The Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (GHCC) is proud to announce that past Chair and current Board member Gabriel Vaca was appointed to the Senior Executive Corporate Advisory Board (SECAB) of the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (USHCC).

SECAB serves as an important link between the USHCC and Fortune 500 corporations. It advises the USHCC on business issues affecting Hispanic business; on major conferences; and on purchasing, recruitment, trade, public policy and other issues affecting business interests. The SECAB is composed of members of Corporate Partners from different industry sectors to support its mission.

"Providing leadership and strategic direction in helping Hispanic business grow in Georgia with the GHCC has been a platform to expand with the USHCC," said Vaca.

Gabriel Vaca is Director of Strategic Account Sales of International Products at UPS, corporate sponsor of the Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. UPS also participates in the USHCC Corporate Partnership Program.
