

GHCC to receive the Spelman College 2009 Legacy of Leadership Award

Atlanta - May 14 - The Georgia Hispanic of Commerce received the Spelman College 2009 Legacy of Leadership Award at the 5th Leadership and Women of Color Conference, in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Legacy of Leadership Award heralds the accomplishments of organizations that exemplify stellar leadership qualities as they significantly enhance the roles of women and the community during this difficult economic period.

This year, award recipients have not only achieved success in building programs for economic literacy, but they are also advancing in the mission of women of color in the areas of business.

Other honorees are Asian American Chamber of Commerce of Georgia; Atlanta Business League; Women's Business Council and the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

The award was presented during the awards dinner at the 5th Anniversary Leadership and Women of Color Conference on May 13, in Atlanta.
